

Group 8: Data Dictionary

- a) Numbered Columns: The columns on the board serve as the path for the pieces to move along.
- b) Winner: the first player to successfully capture three numbered columns.
- c) Bust: the player is unable to place or move their white pieces due to the unavailability of possible dice combinations, they lose their turn and their progress is hindered.
- d) Scoring: a player opts not to roll the dice again and all of their white pieces have been successfully changed to their designated colour.
- e) Movement Pieces: The "white cubes" referred to in the rules on D2L are the pieces that are moved before being locked in with a player's specific colour.
- f) Player/user : someone who plays the game
- g) Professional/ enthusiasts: A person who plays with the intention of winning and improving their skills
- h) Capturing column: get a piece to the top most tile of the board's numbered columns
- i) Dice combination: A designated pair of dice are used to determine the corresponding columns on the board.